

英語Ⅳ VMC③・BAE④

2年次 / 2単位・必修

後期 講師 Gordon M. Sites

学習目標	The Eigo IV course is an intermediate level course, and which also aims at furthering interactional conversational skills, but in more complex task-based activities with several stages, with students encouraged to make more independent analyses and judgements. There is still attention paid to language structures, but more follow-up work, as focus on form.
学びのキーワード	Task-based Communication conversation chunks, vocabulary items, student demonstrations of lessons
授業方法	pair work and group work and the reporting of results, based on a task-based study format, which is actively monitored by the teacher; structures useful for lessons may be focused on before activities begin
成績評価基準	(1) Participation in classroom communicative activities (which normally involve group work monitored by the teacher) (30 percent) (2) periodic homework (based on selected exercises in the workbooks and which are seen largely as follow-up work for a textbook unit) (15 percent) (3) scores in the semester examination (45 percent) (4) class attendance record (10 percent)
